

Sustainable Food Resources for the Northeast

Yale Sustainable Food Project <http://www.yale.edu/sustainablefood>

The Sustainable Food Project is improving the quality of life for students and staff, strengthening education related to food and agriculture, positively shaping the regional economy, and serving as a national model for sustainability on college campuses. The Project oversees a sustainable dining program with a seasonal menu, manages a model college farm, and supports academic and educational endeavors related to food and agriculture.

Edibles Advocate Alliance <http://www.ediblesadvocatealliance.org>

Supporting and promoting community-based health initiatives by developing Community Wellness Programming, dispensing health and nutrition information, and encouraging grassroots local and sustainable food systems and agriculture programs.

Local Food Dude <http://www.localfooddude.com>

Our mission is to increase the awareness of promoting the consumption of locally grown and sustainable foods in our communities. We are strong advocates of local agriculture.

Northeast Organic Farming Association <http://www.nofa.org>

The Northeast Organic Farming Association is a non-profit organization of nearly 4,000 farmers, gardeners and consumers working to promote healthy food, organic farming practices and a cleaner environment.

Slow Food USA <http://www.slowfoodusa.org>

Slow Food is a non-profit, eco-gastronomic member-supported organization that educates people about how their food choices affect the rest of the world.

Edible Nutmeg, a member of Edible Communities <http://www.ediblenutmeg.com>

Edible Nutmeg is a quarterly newsletter that celebrates the harvest of the Nutmeg state helping to define local cuisine, promote local bounty, and build ties between farmers, fishers, and the rest of the community. By demonstrating just how much our landscape has to offer, our newsletter and web site point readers towards the region's wine, seafood, produce, food shops and restaurants.

Farm Fresh Rhode Island <http://www.farmfresh.org>

Farm Fresh RI helps people and businesses find local food. Buy local for flavor, for health, for the environment, and for vibrant communities across Rhode Island.

Better School Food <http://www.betterschoolfood.org>

The mission of Better School Food is to raise awareness of the connection between food and children's health, behavior and learning.

Two Angry Moms <http://www.angrymoms.org>

Are you sick and tired of packing your kids' lunch box everyday because the cafeteria food is unfit for human consumption? Two Angry Moms is a documentary that asks the question: What happens when two "fed-up" moms try to change the school lunch program?
